

SHARE YOUR PHOTOS WITH STAR TRIBUNE READERS

If your organization has a photo of a special event to share, send us a copy with a full caption and we may print it in a future edition of Star Tribune South. Send high-resolution jpegs to dylan.belden@startribune.com.

Photos courtesy ProAct

Above: Bob Armfield, left, Chris Wiles and Mike Johnson shot for 12 under par at Hastings Country Club. "We made a lot of nice putts," Armfield said. "We all seemed to share in the success of that." Armfield was also a 2013 team winner at the Tapemark Charity Pro-Am.

GOLFING FOR CHARITY

A threesome with TDS Metrocom led by Rob Armfield won the 2013 ProAct Golf Classic with a "best ball" score of 60, or 12 under par, at Hastings Country Club on Aug. 19.

Tournament proceeds benefit people with disabilities at ProAct, which has locations in Egan, Red Wing, Zumbrota and Hudson, Wis. ProAct is a 501(c)3 nonprofit corporation that has served the needs of people with disabilities and other challenges for more than 40 years.

Left: ProAct Board member Jim Louwagie drove a shot at the first hole at Hastings Country Club for the 2013 ProAct Golf Classic.