

ProAct offers Individualized Home Support Services

Mission

To provide person-centered services that enhances the quality of life for people with disabilities in the areas of employment, life skills and community inclusion.

www.proactinc.org

Individualized home supports are services that provide support and/or training in any of the community living service categories under DHS. Individuals must live in their own homes or in their family's home. Individualized home supports can be provided in the person's own home, family's home or in the community, and may be provided either in-person or remotely.

ProAct offers the following Individualized Home Support Services:

- Individualized home supports with training
- Individualized home supports without training (Companion services)
- Individualized home supports with family training

ProAct also offers Semi-Independent Living Services (non-waiver service).
